The Principal's Message

TO you the graduates of 1952—you are now starting out on a new and daring program. There are two great parts to any program—the start and the finish. You have made your start. Industry, the professions and the world are looking for young people who can finish things.

You are starting this new adventure of yours on a high crest of enthusiasm. You are going to run into obstacles. You are going to be passed by others. There will be times when you will become discouraged and maybe disillusioned. If you are to finish you must face and overcome these obstacles. You must have confidence in yourselves and in your ability; you must stick to your guns; you must see things through to the finish.

*"Ye are the salt of the earth;
Ye are the light of the world."*

from the Sermon on the Mount

Smythe Honor Roll

EVERY year two members of the senior class are chosen to have their names cast in bronze on the Henry Herbert Smythe Honor Roll. These two, a boy and a girl, are the students, who in the eyes of their classmates best exemplify the qualities of Loyalty, Honor, and Service. Kathryn-Ann Francis and Chester Soliz are this year's additions to the Roll of Honor.

KATHRYN-ANN FRANCIS

CHESTER P. SOLIZ

KAY, class president and associate editor of the Laurencian, has been an active member of Lawrence High School. She is a member of the Student Council, National Senior Honor Society, and Student Intelligencer staff. A guard on the girls' basketball team, Kay likes all sports and is a member of the Modern Dance Club. An organizer of all class activities, she was stage manager of the Senior Class play, "Heaven Can Wait." Kay plans to enter the University of Connecticut following graduation.

CHESTER is president of the Student Council and last year's Good Government Day Representative. He was also chosen for the Emily Post Good Manner Award. He was full-back on the football team for three years and enjoys all sports. Being a football letterman, Chet is a member of the Lawrence High School Varsity Club. A cheerful and willing worker, he helped to put on the Senior Class Play, "Heaven Can Wait." Chet is a member of the college course and hopes to attend the University of Massachusetts.

THE CLASS ODE

Salute to Old Lawrence

Lawrence, old Lawrence,
Hold your head on high.
Though your room soon will empty,
Never let your spirit die.

Farewell! Farewell!
We bid you fond farewell,
And the memories of our school years
In our hearts will always dwell.

Your walks, your trees, your hallways,
Your ancient rooms and all,
Though they be void of splendor—
Oh high school . . .
You're my school . . .

We'll miss you, dear Lawrence,
In final tribute to you
We salute you, we salute you—
Farewell!

Constance FitzGerald
Cynthia Saunders

WE'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER

The football season!

Rallies and parties, exciting games, win or lose, discovering new friends, and a wonderful time in school and out.

Mid-winter.

The Snow Ball during Christmas vacation. Basketball games and snow storms. And studies. And then . . . Spring!

The senior play, "Heaven Can Wait." Thanks to Lennie. Those pink flats (not sets) and the abstract painting . . . we made them all ourselves. A parade down Main Street, chicken a la king at Marshall's, and carbon-dioxide clouds. "Gosh darn it, Doc, you've got to have a morning suit." The sax came in right on time . . . and Chuck's cigar!! The girls were wonderful but the boys stole the show.

The Washington Trip. Let's do it again! Ralphie-boy and his "jokes", running up the Washington Monument, the Lee-Jackson Hotel, Bob and his policeman. A few stragglers always, smelly pipes and damp caverns, roller-skates in the lobby, losing room keys, walking, walking, and walking through Washington, that last Big Night in New York.

May first, Freak Day. That shotgun wedding, the school band (??), a bug-hunter, those new girls, and forty others that could only be called . . . freaks.

Blue Moon, a theme song that will always bring back memories of a perfect evening. Orange punch before, hot dogs on the beach, a beautiful sunrise, bacon and eggs, and the prom was over.

The first time in our caps and gowns. The sudden realization . . . we're going to graduate. An impressive Baccalaureate Service at St. Barnabas Church.

A senior reception given by the faculty of Lawrence High. A nice time talking with parents and teachers.

Monday, June ninth. Class Day program in the afternoon . . . it was worth all those committee meetings. And that night, steak dinners, lobster and chicken . . . and dancing, at our class banquet. Smith's Surrey Room gave us a good time.

Finally, and most of all, Commencement, June tenth. We were so proud of our classmates who won special awards . . . and ourselves for that diploma. The celebration afterwards at the Woods Hole Golf Club.

The teachers we studied under, the classmates and friends we knew, the halls, the rooms, we'll never forget.

Around L. H. S.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

THE lights dim as sixty-seven Seniors reminisce about their school days.

Com.—With high ambitions and much enthusiasm we climbed the stairs to the Main Door behind our president, Dick Kendall, and were promptly thrown off the steps and told politely that only Seniors used that door please—So maybe we did enter L.H.S. by the side door—we got there!

(Dick Paine and Kay Francis walk across stage. Dick argues, "5! 5!" while Kay answers "10!")

Com.—The first event in which we were socially prominent was the Sophomore Initiation.

(Dick Kendall walks on pulling on a girdle)?

Com.—The bean supper was a great success, thanks to the Melody Mountaineers (??)

(Bruce Illgen, Jim Souza, Russ Robbins, Dave Cummings in hillbilly costumes lope across stage playing theme song on home-made instruments. Halfway they stop, and doing can can, finish with "Cindy.")

Com.—Thus began the western music that has never left our hallowed walls—Keep it up, Norris and Fitzy.

(football players charge across stage cheering with sign, Falmouth 7, Barnstable 6)

Com.—In the tenth grade we were known as "Pat's Pets, or Moorman's money-mad morons."

(persons walk across stage holding up card tables, book covers, and name-stickers. One sign reads "You buy! buy! buy! We sell! sell! sell!")

Com.—The box lunch social was something new at L.H.S.

(A short boy bids for and gets a beautiful lunch, then eats it with the owner, the largest girl in class.)

Com.—We were sad to climb down the stairs and leave our closet homerooms for the last time. We were the richest class in years—despite the $5 bill for broken windows.

(treasurer with bag of money runs across stage, yelling "Here I come, Mrs. Harper.") (Dick and Kay repeat first act)

Com.—A year closer to the privilege of using the main door (but not quite there, as bruises and scratches proved) we again entered L.H.S.

(football team charges across stage, cheering, carrying signs, Falmouth 21, Barnstable 0)

Com.—Again we instigated a new social event, this time a Sadie Hawkins' Day dance.

(Rosie Balona chases Alfred Tavares across stage, calling, "Hershal!")

Com.—We're glad this year's sophs enjoyed their initiation—and we didn't really mind paying for their broken window. We were quite socially minded with a couple of dances and lots of parties. In between we did homework. Also had a card party.

(four or five couples dance and sing their way across the stage. Connie FitzGerald and Ginny Lopes do the Charleston) (Kay and Dick walk across—still arguing)

Com.—And so, as seniors, we finally climbed the front stairs and at last entered that long anticipated homeroom, Room 13. We got right to work on the Sophomore Initiation. Wouldn't you know we'd forget the char-er-ones! Oh, and by the way, guess who paid for the annual broken window?

(The stage is transformed into Room 13. Mr. Frank is taking attendance. (A boy wearing a sailor cap and holding up his pants with one hand while he bangs on a desk bell with the other portrays Mr.

Frank.) The 8:40 bell rings, seniors straggle in—late!

Mr. Frank: "What are you birds coming in late for? Who do you think you are—seniors?"

Pupils sing: "If to school we are late,
Please don't scold or agitate.
Mr. Frank, please recall
That at one time you were small."

(Dick Paine enters with his jaw in a bandage)

Mr. Frank: "PAINE!!"

Dick: "I've been to the dentist."

Mr. Frank: "How do you people expect to graduate?"

Voice from the rear: "You know you'll be sorry when we're gone!"

Pupils sing: "After we've gone, and left you crying,

Who's gonna pay for glass that's flying?

Who will plug up every john,

Break all the desks,

After we've gone?"

Mr. Marshall enters and says, "Will all students whose cars are parked in the First National's parking lot please - - MOVE THEM!!" (All the boys rush out. The bell rings and everyone leaves.)

(Football team trudges across the stage with sign, Falmouth 0, Barnstable 40. Red Ransom and George Ferreira dance back.)

Com.—The class of '52 still had to be original, so 37 impoverished seniors banded together and under Dick Paine's leadership formed the Travel Club. A ham supper and a spirited card party combined to make a good-sized treasury.

Com.—A beautiful "Snow Ball" was held during Christmas vacation.

Com.—Sue was crowned queen.

Com.—Next came - - THE RESTRICTION! Room 13 became a combination of Walgreen's and the Candy Kitchen.

(A group of seniors portray a typical lunch period)

Com.—The Student Council sprang into action and requested a smoking area. Permission was granted.

(senior Student Council members dressed as exaggerated Lord Fauntleroy's stroll in. Hold meeting as they sip cokes)

No, our money-minded seniors didn't start selling cigarettes.

(exaggerated Hollywood style actors strut on stage)

Com.—Could these be our seniors?

(the actors replay a few scenes from "Heaven Can Wait," exaggerating mistakes made during rehearsals and on stage)

Com.—Do you remember 6th period?

(library is represented on stage. The bell rings, and ten Seniors dash in, close the door, and raise a rumpus. The door opens and nine seniors quietly file out)

Com.—The Washington trip! Do you remember that first peaceful night in the Relish Hotel (as it was fondly called.) Oooh, those elevators! All is quiet on stage as seniors sleep)

The next day we started off for Washington with Ralphieboy - - yea Waldo and Hershall!

(seniors pack suitcases, throw away coke bottles—several incidents are portrayed and the Washington Trip is covered)

Com.—After Washington we settled down to study our last two months of school. In between we had a Senior Prom, a class banquet, a yearbook published, and a few other miscellaneous activities. And our sober-minded Seniors entered the cruel, cruel world.

(group of Seniors laughing and singing "John Jacob Jingleheimersmith" dance across the stage carrying diplomas)

A Trip Beyond the Earth

Class Prophecy

The broadcast rooms of a BBC station in London; the announcer speaks: This history making newscast will come to you from the radio rooms of the spaceship Maryan T.

Ladies and gentlemen, this is the space ship Maryan T. We are now about half-way to Mars and the broadcast is about to begin. Ready now, here we go.

Good day, classmates. Wherever you are. Here's some news hot off the presses and ready for you to hear.

I saw Agnes Lewis while I was walking down Cheese Street the other day. She was pushing the quadruplets and trying to keep the twins from running away.

Bob Benoit is now running the chain of First National Stores on the moon. He has certainly come up in the world!

Walter Servis works for Bob Benoit in the First National. He sells candy (eats it too). No wonder Bob's going in the hole.

I heard that Phyll Bowman is head secretary at the Crater Cleaner Service. And Barb Cain is still looking at wedding gowns. I wish she'd hurry up—15 years is a long time to keep him waiting.

Are you going to see "All This and Heaven Too?" Our old pal Georgia Lillie is leading lady. She was voted "The Moon Award" for her acting in this production.

Poor Doc Dougherty is sitting on a corner of the ship looking forlorn. He was going up to try to gain the affections of a certain old girl friend.

Poor old Irene DeSouza! She is now scrubbing floors in Grossmoons.

Dave Cummings is at the control of our space ship. Now he can go as fast as he wants without too much worry.

Janet Dufur made money training race horses to run in 1/6 gravity.

George Ferreira is now owner of one of the largest stores on the moon. We hope he's satisfied.

Poor Audrey Chase is a stevedore at Lunar City. The governor decided that since she ate like a horse she might as well work like one.

And guess who we met when we went to see the governor—Dick Paine, of course—his only views at the moment are that he doesn't like Kay Francis leading the opposition.

Connie Fitz was doing a broadcast from the radio-room of the ship. That new song called "Venus and Marze were Sweethearts"—did it on a uke too. She's very popular with the older set.

Albert Tavares is going to the moon to open a laboratory. He has started a new science called "medicoenics" you see he never made up his mind. I understand he expects to come into some money.

As Alfred Tavares' money saving tendency became an obsession in later years, he is slowly starving to death trying to save money on food.

I spotted Alice Spencer amidst a crowd of reporters and was beginning to think I wasn't going to be able to speak to her, but she was very obliging. She's a big star now you know, a comedienne. She's currently in that new parody on burlesque "Top Linguisa." She finally cashed in on that habit of talking.

Cynny Saunders is on the moon getting a lunar divorce from her sixth husband. They tell me she loses most of the fellows' money gambling so most of them think its cheaper to get rid of her—there's always another waiting though.

Nancy Pittsley came up to try to add a few inches to her height and Albert says he can do it. You see after being voted Miss National Midget of Auto Week she decided something had to be done about it.

Red Ransom got bolder and bolder. He now has written a book on how to overpower people.

That feud Joan Resendes had with a certain redhead became bad and she is recovering from shotgun wounds. Veronica Marshall is her private nurse.

Dot Moniz now poses for tooth paste ads. She laughed at a joke one day and hasn't stopped smiling since.

Joan Mederios now raises French poodles. She got quite devoted to those curls.

Believe it or not Connie Kahler is now an old maid school teacher headed for Mars to teach the settlers' children their manners and ABC's. She's very successful.

Dick Kendall was heading for the Casinos of Venus. He made his first million you know teaching the young blades of New York the Speciman's Slouch.

Carol Lowey just as we expected, is in biology. But she said she was working at Old Moonward—I wonder? Glenda Hilton was headed for Uranus to look for a new job. She was working as a sampler in a candy factory on earth, but for some reason the factory went bankrupt.

We just spotted Walter Lino directing spaceships in the true family tradition.

Irene Lopes was on her way to introduce ladies wrestling on Pluto and with her, managing of course, was her irreplaceable niece Virginia which gives her a lot of time to flirt.

Elaine "Pooka" Mello was about the only person I didn't see but I was told she is still earthbound, in Germany—I think.

Jini Marshall was on the ship with her new fellow. At least I think that's what he was—he had violet hair and his name was DRWLLI. Oh well! Jini always did like the unusual

And Nat Marshall is walking a chorus runway as one of the Moontimes. She finally gave up Main Street.

Corby Grundman the famed "Interplanetary" is going to Venus to give a series of lectures on "Flirting Made Easy" and with him Bam Morse who will lecture on "The Fine Art of Blushing Gracefully."

Cynthia Monterio is sewing instructor at Mars School of Home Economics.

And Isabel Oliver is going on a lecture tour. She is very good at it because she has had the experience of how to overcome shyness.

Hilda Peters really went to the extreme—from her long hair to a crew cut.

Naomi Costa is teaching the Art of Jitterbug on Pluto.

Marcia Gifford is the stewardess on our space ship. If she grows much taller and wider though she'll be having to give up her job.

Cally Lawrence went on a fling seven years ago and is still on it. I don't know what this place is coming to when that happens to Cally.

Kathleen Tavares is riding around in a '66 space ship instead of a '51 Chevie.

Kenneth Tobey is instructor at Lawrence Reform School, Lawrence, Mass.

Harold Van Tol owns the first florist shop on Pluto.

And Veronica Soza works for the Marsian—the first newspaper on Mars—as gossip columnist.

"Clayt" Illgen is on his honeymoon and is headed for Ganymede. This is his fifth marriage and we're getting confused. We wish he'd tell us her name for once.

Gordon was locked in the hold of the ship. He's headed for the asylum on Ceres. He finally drove himself crazy making blondes and with him, as always, is Bob O'Connell faithful to the end.

Rosie Balona talked so much that the World Council finally decided to isolate her on one of the minor planetoids in an air bubble. Now she can talk just as loud as she likes.

Lawrence Nordquist is teaching Pen and Ink Drawing at Venus School of Art.

And Cynnie Lumbert decided she better go on a diet. She had gained weight till she weighed 103 lbs. No one had seen Cynny for about 10 years while she was on the diet. She's off now and barely visible.

Chuck McAdams has been working all these years to make a record breaking hearts. He finally succeeded. He broke his own!

Herbie Moniz still has his old job—WATER BOY.

Spider Souza operates a professional gambling syndicate—He's now a multi-millionaire and plans on opening a home for old ladies which—

Jeanette Rose is going to run for him.

Russ Robbins is still on earth—teaching gym at Radcliffe.

David Ross is making it easy for those who get Space Ship Sick or who like to walk. He's building stairs from the earth to Venus.

Chet Soliz has finally caught up with the Times. He owns a '67 Space Ship.

Elnora Rhodes is going to Mercury to give a concert. Still as wonderful as ever at that piano.

Dorothy Barker is teaching general education at the Mercury School of Education.

Joe Watson lives on a satellite of Earth. A place inhabited by only males—women haters.

Marcia McNaughton is the first woman forest ranger on the planet Mars.

Nancy Schroeder is floating around from planet to planet because she can't make up her mind where to settle.

And Ruthie owns a department store where she sells tanks and automobiles.

Sue Pollard after settling down with you know who is now running for the title "Mrs. America."

CLASS GIFTS

ROSE BALONA—Rosie, it's not that we think you're forgetful or anything like that, but here's an appointment book. Maybe now you'll remember where you're going.

DOROTHY BARKER—Dorothy, here's a list of baby sitters, in case you ever get stuck.

ROBERT BENOIT—We're kind of under the impression that you like the gals, so here's some perfume so you can attract more of them.

PHYLLIS BOWMAN—Phyllis, we've heard that you love to roller skate, so here's a band-aid in case you ever fall down.

BARBARA CAIN—It's not that you like cooking or anything, Barbara, but here's a recipe for a "Cahoon Fruit Cake."

AUDREY CHASE—Audrey, because you're from the "Hole", we present you with a doughnut.

NAOMI COSTA—Wherever you may roam, Naomi, we know you will always retain fond memories of your youth on the farm. Just to make sure, we give you this. (a strawberry)

IRENE DESOUSA—Irene, because you're so quiet we thought we might be able to help you out by giving you this noisemaker.

PAUL DOUGHERTY—"Doc", we know you like Christmas because you're always singing "Carol's, so we present you with this Carol book.

JANET DUFUR—Jan, by way of the grapevine, we've heard that you're a little fond of Thayer's gas station, so here's a gas tank so you can always remember it.

GEORGE FERREIRA—George, we have for you some handcuffs to keep you out of mischief. Go hitch yourself on to Babs.

KAY FRANCIS—Kay, here's some medicine for that certain "Paine" of yours.

MARCIA GIFFORD—We know you've been waiting for this, Marcia, so here's a plane ticket from Falmouth to Maine.

CORBY GRUNDMAN—So you like swimming do you, Corby? Well, we've got just the thing for you. (waterwings)

GLENDA HILTON—Glenda, you've been looking a little undernourished lately, so we've decided to give you some money to buy some food with.

BRUCE ILLGEN—Bruce, here's a pair of horns 'cause we know you're not what you pretended to be in the class play.

CONSTANCE KAHLER—Connie, we've heard from a few sources that you have quite a temper, so we're giving you an ice cube to help cool it down.

RICHARD KENDALL—I know you've already got this, but just to make sure, we're presenting you with this record of "Sin"—that's spelled "C-I-N".

CAROL LAWRENCE—Cally, we're kind of worried about you're health, so we're giving you this "Doc's" bag tied with a big red "Bow".

AGNES LEWIS—Agnes, we're giving you this rolling pin because you were the first to go.

GEORGIA LILLIE—Georgia, we know you love singing—we do too—that's why we're giving you this roll of tape. The next time you get the urge, please put some over your mouth.

WALTER LINO—Walter, we know you'll go a long way while playing the harmonica. Here's a truck to help you get there.

IRENE LOPES—Do you like the mountains, Irene? We hope so because we're giving you a picture of the Rocky Mountains.

VIRGINIA LOPES—Ginny, we hear you have a nickname, we're giving you a sweater so you'll never forget it.

CAROL LOWEY—Carol, just in case yours gets tired, we're giving you a thumb to assist you in your travels.

CYNTHIA LUMBERT—Cynny, because you're so small, we're giving you some vitamin pills to help you grow.

NATHALIE MARSHALL—Nat, to us it seems very appropriate to present you with this compass to find a man, because we can't.

VERONICA MARSHALL—I don't know where you got it, Ronnie, but here's a jack-o-lantern to remind you of your nickname.

VIRGINIA MARSHALL—Jini, you seem to have an awful lot of trouble with your voice so the next time you lose it play this record.

GORDON MASSIE—We're giving you this pencil because you always seem to be lending yours to someone else. We'd hate to see you caught without one.

CHARLES MCADAMS—Chuck, for you, we have this castle. It's almost as cute as the "Casiles" you already have.

JOAN MEDEIROS—Joanie, we present you with this leash, so you can walk your poodle.

ELAINE MELLO—Here's a package of "Clix" crackers to remind you of the play you were in. We know the others are either gone or stale by now.

DOROTHY MONIZ—Dot, here's a toy policeman, just in case you ever get stuck on Main Street again.

HERBERT MONIZ—Herbie, we thought you might like this ticket to a "Punch and JUDY" show.

CYNTHIA MONTERIO—We all know how dark it is around where you live, so here's a match so you won't get lost.

MARCIA MACNAUGHTON—Marcia, we understand that you're interested in journalism, so here's a pad and pencil to start you on your career.

BETTY-ANN MORSE—Bam, here's some knitting needles so you won't forget how.

LAWRENCE NORDQUIST—"Noc Noc", we give you a door knocker in remembrance of your fabulous nickname.

ROBERT O'CONNELL—Bob, we present you with this "Perry" winkle. Need we say more?

ISABEL OLIVER—We kind of think you look good in it, Isabel, so we're giving you a tube of lipstick.

RICHARD PAINE—Dick, we give you a bottle of "Kay"ro. We know you think it's sweet.

HILDA PETERS—Hilda, we present you with this Silent BUTLER to remind you of your favorite teacher.

NANCY PITTSLEY—Nancy, we hear you like a certain someone in New York, so we're giving you a toy "JOHN" to remind you of him.

SUSAN POLLARD—Sue, here's a pair of "Gene's". Need we say more?

ROBERT RANSOM—Red, because of the big change in you, we're giving you a diaper.

JOAN RESENDES—Joan, we could give you something for your athletic ability but we thought you'd enjoy a toy "MOOSE". I really wonder why?

ELNORA RHODES—Elnora, here's some salt to put in your Fresh Pond.

DAVID CUMMINGS—Dave, here's a jet. See if you can break the speed record.

RUSSELL ROBBINS—Russ, here's a little black book to keep all your various and new gal friends in.

JEANEITE ROSE—For a reminder in your future years, here's a rose to remember your maiden name.

CYNTHIA SAUNDERS—Remember the night of the card party? Just follow this bouncing ball.

NANCY SCHROEDER—Nancy, just so you won't forget all your old flames, here's a box of matches.

RUTH SCHROEDER—Ruthie, we hope this tank will bring you fond memories of a certain someone.

WALTER SERVIS—Walt, to keep that good "Service" up at the First National, here's an apron to help you along.

CHESTER SOLIZ—Chet, being picked the best-dressed fellow in the Senior class we think you deserve this blue ribbon.

VERONICA SOZA—Ronnie, here's some toothpaste to keep your smile beautiful. May you never have false teeth.

ALICE SPENCER—Alice, we know your greatest ambition is to teach English at L.H.S. so here's a contract for the next twenty years. Good Luck.

ALBERT TAVARES—Whenever you decide to break out of that nutshell, here's a book on "How to win friends and influence people".

ALFRED TAVARES—Al, not that we think you're tight or anything but here's a bank to put overflow of money in.

KATHLEEN TAVARES—Your cold never seems to get better, Kathleen, so here's some cough-drops to help it along.

HAROLD VAN TOL—We've noticed your hair is a little unruly, so we thought you could use this "Wildroot Cream Oil."

ANN ZYLINSKI—Ann, you have lovely skin, but it still could use some color. Take this bottle of sun tan oil, we know it will come in handy.

KENNETH TOBEY—Ken, most of us know you're shy, so here's a banana to join the bunch.

JOSEPH WATSON—Joe, to remind you of a certain girl in the senior class, here's a Marciamellow.

CONSTANCE FITZGERALD—Connie, we give you a jet, so you can keep up with Ross.

DAVID ROSS—David, we present you with this oar, just in case your motor conks out.

JAMES SOUZA—Because your nickname has stuck to you for such a long time, we present you with this Spider so you'll never forget it.

CLASS WILL

ROSIE BALONA leaves her talking ability to Babe Burchell.

Class of 1953

IN September, the Junior Class was well represented on the football team by Bob Betts, George Soares, Bruce Barstow, Dick Baker, Charlie Grinnell, and Norris Eastman. At the end of the season, Dick Baker and "Babe" Soares were elected co-captains of next year's squad. To help cheer the team on, were the two Junior cheerleaders, Marcia Maxim and Shirley Ferreira.

The first social function of the Juniors was a St. Nick's Hop, which was put on in December. In the spirit of the Christmas season, it proved enjoyable to all who attended.

To the boys' basketball team, the Juniors added such players as George Lopes, Nate Beale, Norris Eastman, John Gomes, and Bob Franklin.

Girls who joined the girls' squad were Natalie Radcliffe, Mary Lou McCoy, Marcia Maxim, and Betty Correllus. Next year's captain will be Mary Lou McCoy.

Next on the social calendar of the class was the Quahog Chowder Supper. This supper was held in March and the class cleared a profit of approximately $200, which proves the success of it.

During the course of the year, the members of the class purchased their class rings. The style of ring they voted on this year was just being introduced to high schools.

Front Row: N. Beale, N. Eastman, E. Enos.
Second Row: M. Burchell, J. Doukas, S. Philbrick.

Now as their Junior year draws to a close, the class is putting on a last social activity. This is a repeat of last year's Shipwreck Dance which was such a success. It was a new idea thought of by the class when they were Sophomores and they hope it will be continued as an annual affair after they graduate.

As the Seniors prepare to become graduates of Lawrence High School, the Juniors are preparing to become Seniors.

Class of 1954

NINE years of grind behind us, our Sophomore year found us somewhat shaken and uncertain. The September morn of '51 reminded us that we must cast off our Freshman beanies and become sophisticated at last. Hazing was soon to come! What would they do to us? How long would it last? Could we take it? Of course, we could—and we did—.

On September 19 we were handed a typewritten sheet of paper on which our instructions were inscribed. The next day found us a sight to behold; the girls adorned with pin-curls and lipstick which decorated half of the mouth. No belts, but earrings made the boys startlingly funny and everyone carried polished apples to satisfy a hungry Senior class! With bows and a cheerful (?), "Good morning, dear SENIOR" we payed homage to the almighty "upper classmen." Dresses turned backwards and trousers turned upward exposed odd forms and figures. Judgment came in the evening and we suffered the penalties of the condemned. The judge sentenced us to three years at Lawrence High School. Accepted!

STARTED in the spring of 1951, this is definitely one of the most progressive clubs in Falmouth, and without a doubt the most progressive in the school. Its founder, Jim Kinney, had in mind the promotion of better school spirit and the possibility of buying equipment for the athletic teams of L.H.S. when he called the lettermen of Lawrence High School together on that spring day in '51." The club has accomplished this during the year. The Varsity Club held rallies on the eves of the football games. The climax was a gigantic rally previous to the Barnstable game.

During the preceding summer, the club held paper drives which contributed toward a blocking dummy for the football team. In April, the club held a dance which turned out to be a social and financial success. This type of club has long been needed in Falmouth and is really serving its purpose now. The Varsity Club is continually growing and gaining prestige.

NINETEEN hundred and fifty-one and fifty-two was a big year for the Student Council, and subsequently an important one for Lawrence High. The Council has at last become an active, smoothly-functioning organization, after three years of comparative inactivity. On the foundation of this year's work, the Council should grow to become a powerful cog in the workings of L.H.S., and rightly so because it is the only truly representative group.

A summary of the year's activities shows many that had and will have a direct effect on the students themselves. Perhaps the most popular was a formal request made to the school committee asking that provision be made for transportation to sports events and for field trips. If this is granted the Council of '52 will long be remembered.

Transportation to football and basketball games at as low a price as possible, maintaining a smoking area for those students with their parent's permission to use it, abolishing the Student Court, planning a very successful Good Government Day, sponsoring an assembly, and distributing questionnaires in which the students had a chance to air their beliefs about the council and its responsibilities, and forming a new type of Council in which the officers are elected directly by the students, were perhaps some of the most important issues acted upon.

The Council also learned to use the new reading accelerators acquired by the Guidance Department in the hopes that they could act as student instructors to others taking the course. This year the plan was still in the experimental stage, but in the future should prove to be of great value.

The Council sponsored two photograph exhibitions, took charge of the Korean Clothing Campaign in the whole school system, spon-

MODERN DANCE CLUB

THE Modern Dance Club elected Kay Francis president and Cynthia Saunders secretary-treasurer at its second meeting this year. Elnora Rhodes was pianist for the group. About fifteen girls were members of this year's club.

They began work on "The Writing of a Daily Newspaper." Each section of the paper was portrayed in some way to relate what was going on. For example, one column had a ballet, nightclub, and the Rockettes for news in the entertainment world. All the other parts of the paper were worked out in this manner. Because of lack of time, though, a performance of this was never possible. Maybe next year's group will continue it.

The only performance of the club was before the Central Parent-Teachers Association in February. For the first time since the club was started about three years ago they had modern dance skirts to wear over their black leotards.

A new activity for L.H.S. girls this year was tennis. Great enthusiasm was shown with a total of ninety-six girls signing up for it. The intermediate players met twice a week at the courts behind the Community Center. The beginners met once a week at the same place. With so much enthusiasm shown the group should be a success during the following year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

sored the Christmas decoration contest in cooperation with the Student Intelligencer and decorated the hall and played Christmas music, acted as guides through the school on various occasions, attempted to help keep the lunchroom, the school grounds, and the rest rooms clean by posting appropriate signs, and took charge of the seating plan in the auditorium.

The Council collected one dollar per representative from each class, and further strengthened the treasury by holding a dance on February. Eighteen dollars was spent on pins for the senior members.

The L.H.S. Council joined the district and national associations of Student Councils. They attended one convention to gain new ideas and compared their work with that of others.

A rotating system for holding meetings was followed. The group met in successive periods each Monday, and each member made up the work he or she missed while attending the meeting.

The summary of the year shows mistakes and successes as in any democratic organization, and a hopeful promise for the future of the Lawrence High School Student Council.

THE STUDENT INTELLIGENCER

The Student Intelligencer, that fabulous Lawrence High School page found weekly in the Falmouth Enterprise, has steadily improved through the year. Laboring under various difficulties, the staff has managed to produce a full page each week without an advertisement from a fish factory.

At the beginning of the year, Mr. Ralph L. Davis, adviser, appointed Kay Francis and Nancy Pittsley co-editors and Cynthia Saunders as special features editor. Marcia MacNaughton replaced Cynnie as the special features editor. For the last eight issues Marcia introduced "LeRoy Robert Lee General Hershel Beauregard" or "Rebel" who made comments about the school, the town, the Cape, and other notes of interest. Betty-Ann Morse was appointed co-editor when Kay resigned.

Many Juniors and Sophomores gained experience which they will be able to use next year.

GLEE CLUB

UNDER the direction of Mr. Conrad Rossello, Falmouth's new music director, a mixed high school glee club was formed this year. In addition to several Central PTA meetings, this organization performed in the Pops Concert presented May 2 by the music department.

From the ranks of the glee club ten girls were chosen to form a Girls' Choir. Those in this group were Cynthia Carragher, Eva Blake, Susan Pollard, Judith Medeiros, Virginia Marshall, Ann Casiles, Mary Ellen Watson, Mary Louise Armstrong, Helen Peters, and Dolores Botelho. Cynthia Saunders acted as their accompanist and assistant director. The Girls' Choir sang at PTA Student Demonstration Night and also presented a short program for the North Falmouth Grange.

FOOTBALL

UNDERDOG L. H. S. FOOTBALL TEAM SLAUGHTERS MIDDLEBORO 20-0

The L. H. S. gridmen started the season in an excellent fashion defeating a strong Middleboro team, 20-0. Russie Robbins threw two T. D. passes—one to Baker and one to Moniz. Soliz plunged over for the other. Lawrence High scored 16 first downs to the visitors' 3 and netted 340 yards to 39 for Middleboro. The backs ran well and the line blocked like the Middleboro boys were first cousins.

L. H. S. REGISTERS CONVINCING 46-13 WIN OVER PROVINCETOWN

The Marauders strode to their second straight win by thumping Provincetown by a score of 46-13. The Orange and Elack were virtually pushed off the field. Russ Robbins was the big star scoring two touchdowns, throwing two touchdown passes and kicking four extra points. Frank Grundman, Dick Baker, Chet Soliz, Joe Vidal, and Howie Eisen also got into the scoring column, each making a touchdown. Bob Betts and Dick Kendall were outstanding in the line.

SPIRITED MAROON ROLL OVER BOURNE, 26-12

It was L. H. S. right from the start when Russ Robbins took the opening kickoff and went 85 yards before he was dragged down from behind on the Bourne one yard line. Again Robbins was the big star as he passed around the Bourne defense. In the first period he hit Ferreira and Baker for T.D.'s. In the third canto, he passed to Dougherty for a T.D., and threw another one to Ferreira in the fourth period. A Robbins pass to Baker was good for one extra point and Robbins kicked the other.

Co-Captains George Ferreira and Dick Kendall

MARAUDERS WIN OVER DARTMOUTH FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT VICTORY, 6-0

L. H. S. emerged as the winner in a 6-0 thriller at the athletic field. With three seconds to play, Robbins hit Dick Baker in the end zone to give the Maroon the winning margin. The game was a bitter, hard-fought contest all the way. Chuck McAdams and Bob Benoit were outstanding in the line for L. H. S. Visions of a Class D Championship were in sight for Falmouth.

MARAUDERS LOSE TO FAIRHAVEN 20-6 AFTER FOUR STRAIGHT WINS

The big Maroon went down to its first defeat of the season at the hands of a winless Fairhaven team. A Robbins-to-Baker pass clicked in the second quarter to put Falmouth back in the game after Fairhaven jumped to a quick 7-0 lead. Ferreira broke loose for a 40-yard T.D. run but it was called back on a bad clipping penalty. The L. H. S. team could do nothing after this and Fairhaven went on to win 26-6.

CHAMPIONSHIP BID FADES AS L.H.S. TAKES 13-6 LOSS

L. H. S. took it on the chin for the second straight time as they were defeated by Wareham, 13-6. A much quicker and faster Blue and White unit never let go of their early lead over L. H. S. John Moniz was the only Lawrencian to hit paydirt. Wareham netted 235 yards as L. H. S. made 215. "Rambling Russ Robbins" was carried out in the third quarter and Bob Lopes directed the team for the rest of the game. Bob Benoit was outstanding in the line for Falmouth.

MARAUDERS BOW TO SOMERSET FOR THIRD STRAIGHT LOSS

The Maroon and White went down to their third straight loss at the hands of a small Somerset team. Red Ransom directed the team in the place of Russ Robbins who was injured. The only Falmouth touchdown came in the second period when Ransom passed 20 yards to Dougherty in the end zone. Somerset passes were the big factor in the defeat. Ransom displayed some of his fine running power in the second half but couldn't seem to hit paydirt.

L.H.S. GETS WORST DRUBBING EVER AS 4,000 WATCH GAME

Ray Hostetter and Company virtually ran a flock of red and white jerseys so far into the ground that it would be hopeless to clean them. The Red Raiders led the crippled Lawrence High gridders at the end of the first period by a 7-0 score. They went on to score 13 more in the second quarter, 7 in the third quarter, and didn't stop until they had a core of 40-0. The L. H. S. team could never seem to get started against the tight Barnstable defense. When the score reached a 33-0 figure in the last quarter, the Barnstable coach, Leo Shields, still refused to insert his second string. Yes, it was a sad ending for such players as Russ Robbins, George Ferreira, Red Ransom, Chet Soliz, Doc Dougherty, Chuck McAdams, Dick Kendall, Bob Benoit, Dave Cummings, and Bob O'Connell.

BASKETBALL

L.H.S. LOSES FIRST GAME TO WAREHAM FIVE 59-33

A taller Wareham club came from behind in the second half to top Lawrence High 53-39 at Falmouth. L.H.S. jumped to a quick 9-0 lead when Bruce Illgen dropped in four field goals and a foul shot. They held a slight lead until the half, then Wareham took over till the end. "Clayt" Illgen was high man for Falmouth with 18 points.

ILLGEN AND EASTMAN SHINE AS FALMOUTH WINS 55-35

The first League game of the season at Hall School Gym spelled victory number one for L.H.S. as they defeated Sandwich. Illgen was top man scoring 23 points for L.H.S. Eastman followed with 16 tallies. Polloni was high scorer for Sandwich with 16 points.

L.H.S. DROPS HARD FOUGHT CONTEST TO BOURNE 63-50

The Bourne High School basketball team skinned L.H.S. by a score of 63-50 at Bourne. Carl Bradford was the big gun for the Canalmen scoring 18 points. Bruce Illgen was high scorer for Falmouth with 18 points. Red Ransom followed behind with 17 points.

ILLGEN SCORES 29 POINTS AS L.H.S. UPSETS BARNSTABLE

This was by far the most exciting game of the year. The Falmouth star, Bruce Illgen, played the greatest game of his career as he dropped 29 points through the hoop displaying a fine array of shots. Donald Nickula was high for Barnstable. The Falmouth fans swarmed around their stars with joy as they walked off the floor with a 61-48 win.

L.H.S. SUBDUES TO TIGHT YARMOUTH DEFENSE 45-37

The L.H.S. club went down to Yarmouth and lost by a 45-37 score. The Lawrence boys couldn't seem to penetrate the tight Yarmouth zone defense. Bruce Illgen took his usual scoring honors for L.H.S. scoring 13 points. Bob Studley of Yarmouth was the game's high scorer with 22 points.

LAWRENCE HIGH SLAUGHTERS SANDWICH AGAIN 74-48

For the second straight time, L.H.S. defeated Sandwich easily. "Clayt" Illgen took scoring honors for L.H.S., this time with 20 points. Russie Robbins hit for 18 points and Norris Eastman had 16.

L.H.S. DEFEATED BY STRONG FAIRHAVEN CLUB. 66-49

Possessor of eleven straight wins, Fairhaven was given a first half score by L.H.S. Falmouth jumped to a quick lead and held it until the end of the second quarter. Fairhaven gradually started to pull away at the end of the third period and the score was 66-49 as the final whistle blew. Bruce Illgen was high scorer for Falmouth with 14 points.

LAWRENCE HIGH DEFEATED BY BOURNE 76-55

L.H.S. was neck to neck with the league-leading Bourne team right up to the third quarter when the Canalmen pulled ahead. Illgen took scoring honors for L.H.S. for the eighth time in eight games with 20 points. Final score was Bourne 76, Falmouth 55.

FAIRHAVEN SLAUGHTERS FALMOUTH BY SCORE 81-48

Fairhaven walked away with their second triumph over Gov Fuller's bays. Falmouth never threatened Fairhaven on the unfamiliar court. Naturally Bruce Illgen was high. The 6 ft. 3 in. center scored 16 points for a losing cause. Vern Gomes, 5 ft. 5 in. Fairhaven player, had 24 points.

BARNSTABLE GETS REVENGE TOPPLING L.H.S. 71-38

Barnstable evened the score by running over L.H.S. by a score of 71-48. The Red Raiders were never seriously threatened. Illgen and Eastman were tied for scoring honors with 12 points each.

L.H.S. UPSETS YARMOUTH IN FINAL LEAGUE GAME, 50-41

It was one of those nip and tuck affairs all the way. In the middle of the last quarter, however, L.H.S. maintained a twelve point margin. Illgen (ho hum) was high for Falmouth with 15 points.

L.H.S. UPSETS WAREHAM IN OVERTIME 63-62

This was a real thriller. With the score 58-56 in favor of Wareham and five seconds remaining Spider Souza sank a fifteen foot set shot to tie the score and send the game into overtime. In the overtime with 15 seconds remaining, Wareham leading 62-61, Bruce Illgen sank a set shot and L.H.S. walked off the floor with a 63-62 win. Bruce Illgen was high scorer with 21 points.
